

Corporate Information

Hawkeye Tracking is a veteran-owned small business that is aligned to provide expertise that improves performance and reduces life cycle costs in the areas of supply chain management, asset management, asset tracking, transportation, warehouse management, program management, freight forwarding and business process reengineering.

Experience

Hawkeye managing partners possess a wealth of military logistics and information technology experience that can be applied to any supply chain management scenario. Military experience includes aviation and surface ship logistics; foreign military sales; integrated logistics support; information technology; and supply chain management. Specific expertise includes:

- Performance Based Logistics (PBL)/Contractor Logistics Support (CLS)
- Repairable Item Management
- Freight Forwarding
- Global Import/Export of Defense Articles
- Global asset tracking from origin to final destination
- Unique Identification (UID)/Radio Frequency Identification (RFID)
- Warehousing, Distribution, and Transportation Management
- Tailored IT systems development

Clients/Partners

Since 2007, Hawkeye Tracking has provided service and support to the following trusted clients:

- Defense Security Cooperation Agency
- Naval Air Systems Command
- Navy Supply Systems Command, WSS
- GDIT
- ITC Defense
- Lockheed Martin
- Dayton Aerospace
- Kuwait Ministry of Defense
- Target Systems, Inc
- Cavalier Logistics

Corporate Data

Hawkeye Tracking is a privately held supply chain management enterprise located in Lexington Park, Maryland with offices in Newcomb NY and San Antonio TX. We specialize in providing comprehensive, end-to-end supply chain solutions for military and commercial customers.

- CAGE: 4RQW0
- DUNS: 798835141
- DDTC: M35389
- GSA: GS35F522